Tax Time Again

Tax Day is Saturday, April 15, 2023

You must submit your 2022 tax forms electronically or have them post-marked by Saturday, April 15, 2023. But even if you wait until the last moment to file your taxes, there are three things you can do right now to lessen the stress.

1. Get a set of folders or large envelopes and label them for your various tax documents. As you receive tax information from your employer, the Credit Union and any other financial institutions, any investments you hold and so on, place them in the appropriate folder.

2. Make a folder for possible tax deductions as well. Go through your year's receipts and pull out those related to real estate taxes, charitable donations, medical expenses, etc., and place them in the folder. Dig out your 2021 return to help you remember what you claimed previously.
3. If you are eligible, contribute to your Individual Retirement Account. You have until tax day to do so, but the sooner the better. Because the interest is accumulating tax free, you will want to maximize the time you have your money tucked away for retirement. For complete details, contact your tax advisor.

Electronic Tax Document Info

PFCU mails tax documents out prior to January 31, 2023 to any member who has not signed up to receive those documents electronically on our home banking site by December 27, 2022.

If you signed up late then you will receive paper tax documents for 2022 and electronic tax documents in years to come.

95th Annual Meeting

The 2023 Annual Meeting is just around the corner, and we hope you can join us. Give us your feedback and let us know how well the credit union is serving your financial needs. Enjoy refreshments and snacks and the chance to visit with other members too. The credit union exists only to serve you and your support is appreciated.

The meeting will be held on Thursday, March 30, 2023 at the main office at 1243 W. 8th Street in the lower level. The meeting will begin at 5:15 p.m. We look forward to seeing you at the annual meeting. Masks will be required for all attendees.

Only one nomination was received for each of the open Board of Directors positions. As a result, no election will be necessary and the two individuals will be elected by general consent or acclamation for a three year term.
